VAUDEVILLE SHOW AND DANCE MAY 6

Attractive Bill Will Feature San Francisco Talent For Benefit of St. Francis Church

An after Easter treat will be the vaudeville show and dance for the benefit of St. Francis parish on Saturday evening, May 6th. Some of the best talent in San Francisco will appear here for the good cause and the bill scintillates with wit, repartee, song, dance and black-face acts. The closing skit will feature Willie Meehan, ring side favorite and a vaudeville star of great popularity.

The Agentian orchestra, a clever aggregation of jazz artists will play for dancing. The sale of seats indicates a record attendance and great interest in the entertainment.

CAZES NEW RESORT NEARS COMPLETION

The new hotel and cafe being erected for Mr. and Mrs. Jean Cazes on the highway near Fetters, is nearing completion. The Cazes sold their resort in the hills and are to engage in business in the new quarters. A twenty-five room hotel and grill will provide fine accommodations for guests and a good season is expected.

Maurice Power Jr., of San Francisco has been visiting at the W. W. Carter home. Maurice is a gentlemanly little fellow and his Sonoma friends are always glad to see him.

OLD MISSION BENEFIT AT DON THEATRE

To aid the Mission committee in getting a financial start for the proposed caretaker and museum to be established in Sonoma's historic old landmark an entertainment will be given at the Don Theatre Wednesday and Thursday evenings, April 26 and 27. The photoplay will be "Fine Feathers." A comedy reel will also be shown.

FLORA BENEDETTO AHEAD IN QUEEN CONTEST

Ruler of May Day Carnival Exciting Much Interest Throughout Sonoma Valley.

The contest for queen of the May Day Carnival which opens at Boyes Springs on April 29th, and is to culminate in a great May Day festival with a May Pole dance, is becoming more exciting every day. The latest returns show Miss F. Benedetto of Boyes Springs leading for queen, with Miss G. White close second.

As the contestant to get the first 5000 votes is to get a premium and the one in the lead by April 20 to get a block of votes from a Santa Rosa daily paper, the interest is keen among all the charming contestants and their friends.

The Springs, from Caliente to Boyes, will be in gala attire next week when carnival decorations will be put up. Bunting and flags will be strung

GLEN ELLEN BOY HELD FOR MURDER

William Johnson Gets Preliminary Hearing. Self-Defense to Be Defense Plea.

William A. Johnson was held Wednesday afternoon to answer to the superior court on the charge of murdering his father, John Albert Johnson of Glen Ellen, last February.

The preliminary hearing was held before Judge Marvin T. Vaughn at Santa Rosa. Attorney for the defense, Wallace L. Ware, requested that Johnson be released on bail, contending that the evidence showed the accused was not guilty of murder in the first degree. The application was taken under advisement by the court.

The case was opened at 10 a. m. on Wednesday morning, the defense seemingly making no great effort to gain any points. The prosecution, represented by Assistant District Attorney Ross Campbell, lined up the case for the state. At 11:30 a. m., the court adjourned to give the defense opportunity to prepare its case. Attorney Ware stated that the defense was ready to submit the case to the superior court as it stood.

Witnesses called to the preliminary examination were Mrs. Mary Johnson mother of the accused and wife of the slain man; Andrew Johnson, a brother; Dr. A. A. Thurlow, who was called to the scene of the shooting; Julius Pancrazi, proprietor of the hotel at Glen Ellen, and J. F. Ryan, deputy sheriff of Sonoma.

Johnson was given over to the custody of the sheriff again pending his appearance before the superior court.

HIGHWAY BIDS WILL BE OPENED MONDAY

Figures Sought On First Unit of Schellville - Santa Rosa Road By State Highway Commission

On Monday, April 17th at Sacramento, bids will be opened by the State Highway Commission for the first unit of the Schellville-Santa Rosa highway out of Santa Rosa to Belknap, approximately 11 miles. The specifications call for an 18-foot highway of bituminized macadam—a four inch crushed rock base with asphaltum top.

The route of the new highway between Santa Rosa and Schellville will vary considerably from the present county road between the two points. Many turns and curves are eliminated and the crossing at Warfield is avoided by going through the Weise and Swain properties, and coming out to the present road near the O'Gorman ranch (the former Bocca place). The curve near the Steiger ranch will also be straightened out after which the highway will be routed right through the Springs, the road being widened out at Fetters.

At Verano the highway will cut across the Maxwell property. The turn at the Baccala corner will be avoided by swinging across the acreage to the rear and thence onto Napa street.

In regard to the progress on rights of way, the Santa Rosa Republican says:

Work on the rights of way on the Santa Rosa-Schellville state highway south of Belknap is making steady progress, according to Supervisor Fred Lowell, who reported today that agreements have been reached with 27 property owners for strips of land on the route of the southern unit.

Bids for construction of the northern section of the highway have been invited and will be opened by the highway commission within a few days, with assurance that actual construction will be started early in May.

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY

Mrs. Small, wife of one of the workmen on the new high school building, was painfully injured in a runaway accident here Wednesday. Her horse took fright when a portion of the harness broke and she was thrown out as the rig struck a motor truck parked on the street near Gottenberg's store.

Mrs. Small sustained a painful scalp wound as her head hit the pavement. She bled profusely and had to be treated at the office of Dr. Hays.

BUSY MARKET FOR SONOMA PRODUCE

The Sonoma Mission Creamery is a busy place these spring days and is handling large quantities of Sonoma Valley produce. During the past week about 5000 dozen eggs have been received from Sonoma poultry ranches and 22000 pounds of milk from Sonoma dairies. In addition to the manufacture of butter about a ton of cheese is made every day at the Sonoma plant of the Creamery.

HENRY WATTERS IS ACCUSED BY PARTNER

O. L. Hose Sues Editor and Claims He Wrongfully Appropriated Money. Wants Receiver Appointed.

Henry Watters, former bookkeeper in a grocery firm, who engaged in the newspaper business here some years ago with O. L. Hose, is accused by his partner of misappropriating money belonging to the firm to his own use and is the defendant in a suit filed by Hose Wednesday in the Superior Court of this county.

The complaint alleges that since the commencement of the partnership in 1917, that Watters has, from time to time, applied to his own use from receipts and profits of said business large sums of money greatly exceeding the proportion thereof to which he was entitled, to-wit, a sum in excess of $3000.

He asks for the appointment of a receiver, an accounting and a restraining order pending settlement of the affairs of the firm.

Hose is the crippled partner of the concern and is an experienced printer and newspaper man. It is said he has not got enough out of the business of late to pay his board bill.

The charge against Watters will come as a great surprise to many here where he is prominent in church circles, being treasurer of the Congregational church.

VOTE STRONGLY FAVORS PLAZA SERVICE STATION

Only 39 Votes Cast Against Proposal To Lease Corner of Plaza. Trustees Elected Without Opposition.

The voters of the city of Sonoma went to the polls last Monday and cast their ballots 4 to 1 in favor of the oil service station plan to beautify the plaza. Only 39 were opposed to leasing the corner to the oil company. The total vote was 210. The election was quiet and results indicate pronounced sentiment for the improvement and beautification of the historic square.

Trustees Lindley, Dobbel, Bates and Lewis were elected to serve the people as trustees, confirming the popularity of their appointments and endorsement of their progressive policy.

GRANTED GUARDIANSHIP OF AGED PARENT

Charles McDevitt was summoned to San Francisco Monday from the north to inquire into the condition of his aged father, V. McDevitt, whom he learned had been taken to the Franklin Hospital and was in a serious mental as well as physical condition.

McDevitt's father who is almost 80 years of age and very wealthy, has lived alone and when he fell ill, fearing that he might fall the victim of designing persons, friends sent for his son. Guardianship papers were granted to Chas. McDevitt who has employed counsel to look into the financial affairs of his father and has provided him with the best medical care obtainable. The elder McDevitt's wealth consists of money in the Hibernia Bank, real estate and bonds.

Miss Marion Stone of the Berkeley school department has been spending the Easter vacation with her cousin Miss Florence Murphy.

FIRE IN HOTEL

Nearly 100 men and women, guests of the Overton Hotel, 378 Third St., San Francisco, were routed from their rooms to the street in scanty attire early Tuesday morning when fire broke out and filled the halls with smoke.

The smoke and screams of the panic-stricken guests attracted the attention of Policeman John Horgan, who turned in a double alarm and brought most of the downtown fire apparatus to the scene.

The fire was extinguished in short order, but the damage to the building is estimated at $3000.

The fire originated in the room of Mrs. May Darby in the second floor of the structure. An overheated gas plate ignited the curtains on the window. The hotel is owned by J. P. Clayburgh, 1719 Washington street. It is managed by Ray Button.

Joe Andrews left Saturday morning for the Summit after a pleasant visit in the Sonoma Valley.

Jack Larson and J. Basileu were in the wilds of Wingo last Friday in quest of salt water fish.

C. F. Meidrich of San Francisco is at Verano and will conduct the restaurant there this season.

Chris Reynolds of Santa Rosa, accompanied by his wife, was here on Saturday renewing old acquaintances.

Tony Kiser, Schellville railroad man was here Saturday evening. Tony looks as young as he did 20 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Perret and two sons, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. Portugal motored to Calistoga on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Verdier and family of the French Cottage and a party of friends motored to the City of Roses Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lombard were in San Francisco last week greeting Marshal Joffre. Claude is an overseas veteran and is a great booster for the foreign war heroes. Captain Lombard met the French warrior on the Marne during the world war.

The El Verano Garage has sold a Ford car to Ed Dowdall, who is making quite a hit with his new flivver.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bianchini, F. Mosso and a party of friends motored to the grand opera in San Francisco one night last week.

D. H. McCarthy, proprietor of the Annadan Place, is spending the week in San Francisco on a business and sightseeing tour.

Charley Lane and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Buck of Glen Ellen were here on Monday. Mr. Buck is proprietor of the Mervyn Hotel.

Mrs. J. Dutil, who has been in San Francisco during the winter months, has returned to spend the summer in her home here.

Mrs. Wm. Morse, early day resident here, was a guest at the Cox residence, Sonoma Vista, over the week end, from San Francisco.

Barney Ferguson, ex-mayor of Benecia, was here several days and departed Sunday for Glen Ellen, to attend to some political work.

M. Russoni has bought out the dairy ranch of Ed Dowdall in the western foothills and with his family has moved here from Newman.

Harry Baines and Professor Joe Fitzgerald, leader of the Sal Carlo dance orchestra, Agua Caliente, transacted business in Napa Monday.

Miss Ruby Smith, formerly of this place, but late of San Francisco, a singer of class, is at the Carlo Villa, Agua Caliente for the summer season.

The base ball game here last Friday resulted in a victory for the Sonoma team. The El Verano boys, however, played good ball. The score was 6 to 4.

Among the El Verano ball fans who attended the ball game Sunday at Santa Rosa were John Dowdall, Earl Revie, Pat Kearney, and Tom Kearney.

John Basileu has added another kid to his family. The goat was purchased from E. P. Waldo and our barber is kept busy nursing the little fellow along.

Paul Vannucchi and mother motored up from San Francisco this week end. Paul is a greyhound enthusiast and is the owner of the fastest dog in the world.

Patrick Sullivan after wintering here has left for the Sacramento valley to make a stake during the summer months. He will return to his quarters here next winter.

The home belonging to A. Chelini on Riverside Drive took fire Monday afternoon from a defective chimney. The roof was badly burned, but owing to the promptness of the El Verano volunteer fire department the flames were soon under control. The Boyes Springs fire engine was called, but our boys had the fire out when it arrived. Chief Cause who was in San Francisco was missed from his official station on the fire engine. The fire was discovered by a passing automobilist.

Miss Ida Caviglia of Santa Rosa, niece of George Caviglia of this place was the lucky winner in the Chronicle, contest of a $1350 Velie. The contest closed last Friday in San Francisco.

J. B. Mini of the Bellevue Hotel passed away in Napa this week. The funeral was held in Vallejo. Mr. Mini had been ill for some time and friends were sorry to hear of the death of the El Verano hotel man. He leaves a widow.

Pat Hyland, San Quentin guard, is on his annual visit to Sonoma Valley. Pat spends his vacation here each year and is as fat and good looking as ever and is making a hit with our Sonoma Valley girls. Pat is some terpsichorean.

Dave Forni, well known stockman while looking after some cattle in the wilds of the Mouyer ranch in the eastern foothills last Tuesday, ran onto a large rattlesnake which was six feet long and had seven rattles. After a vicious fight between man and reptile, it was felled by a large rock and killed. It was brought to this town by the capturer, and he is receiving congratulations on his clever work. It is claimed the rattler fought gamely till the end and struck at his antagonist several times.

This Turkey Devoted Mother.
A Saskatchewan (Canada) woman has had a remarkable experience of the endurance of a turkey in producing and trying to protect her young, although the same ended in a failure. About the middle of November she missed one of her breeding birds and came to the conclusion that the turkey had been taken by a coyote or some other animal. On the 28th the turkey reappeared covered with snow and ice, the thermometer registering and having registered for the fortnight previous from 25 to 35 degrees below zero. The woman guessed at once that the turkey had a nest somewhere. On finding the turkey's tracks she followed them for about 50 yards in the bush and found the nest containing ten young turkeys hatched out of 13 eggs. She assumed that the bird had hid its eggs and was sitting on them when the cold spell came and the turkey must have gone ten days without food trying to protect the young, which unfortunately perished, after all the hen's efforts through much suffering to save them.

Lawbreakers.
Man is the natural law maker and woman is the natural law breaker, says W. L. George, English feminist, famous as "the man who knows all about women."

His theory is that women hate restraint more than men do. George is on the wrong track. His theory doesn't hold.

Women are the natural makers of the law. They begin with disciplining boys, later regulating their husbands with the wisdom of instinct.

Men make the good laws. But women put the notions in the men's heads.

Mare Knew Where to Go When Sick.
An Ontario reader of the Montreal Family Herald writes that he was taking care of a roan mare that had been longed a year previous to another farmer three miles away. The animal took sick with the colic. The third morning he went to see how the mare was, and found she had gone. She had been tied in her stall, which she broke down; the door was also broken. The next day, the correspondent says, he found the animal had gone back to the farm three miles away and had jumped two gates to reach the stable door, where she dropped dead.

Fossil Eel Prize for Museum.
A fossil eel, estimated to have lived about twenty-five thousand years ago, was unearthed recently in a western Kansas chalk bed. The specimen is now among the most valued exhibits of the University of Kansas museum.

THE COMEBACK OF THE WINE GRAPE

The comeback of the wine grape and vineyards of California following the fear that prohibition would kill the industry is the subject matter of an interesting article in the April number of Orchard and Farm. The title of the article is "The Romance of the Grape." It embodies questions sent out and answers received from 50 men having a first hand knowledge and opinion of conditions, present and probable, as to California vineyards.

Sonoma Valley, with first hand information of conditions, can throw additional light on some of the questionnaires, some of which are as follows:

Estimate of acreage, old and new. Percentage of increase. Removal of old vines, compared with planting of new.

Reports indicate at least 60,000 acres being planted to new vines in the state. Many new vineyards have been set out in Sonoma Valley and no one is removing old vines. When prohibition first loomed, some vines were torn up but farmers regret their act.

Figures on profits made by growers during recent years, especially the past two seasons.

Answers indicate a profit of from $100 to $1200 per acre. Wine grapes which sold a few years ago at from $6 to $18 per ton have brought from $80 to $150 per ton in Sonoma Valley the past two seasons and are contracted for months ahead. Buyers for the 1922 crop are already in the field.

Values of grape lands now as compared with formerly. Are these prices in your opinion stable; if not, how long can they be maintained?

Four districts reported stable prices ranging from $500 to $1500 per acre, depending upon age, location and variety. Three reported higher prices than formerly, which probably will remain stable or even increase as long as prices for grapes remain high. Seven expressed the belief present values are unstable. Five indicated values dependent almost entirely upon grape prices. Several expressed the belief that present valuations would be maintained for three to five years at least. Average valuation, all districts, $600 per acre for improved, established vineyards, and $50 to $300 per acre for raw land suited to grape production.

Examples of profits made by deals in grape lands either by owners or real estate operators.

One grower in Napa County paid $600 per acre in 1919, and sold for $1000 in 1921. A Merced County vineyard sold for $600 per acre in 1920 $1000 per acre in 1921, and resold in two weeks for $1500. A Mendocino County vineyard, purchased in 1920 for $425 per acre, sold in 1922 for $550 an acre. A Yolo County producer, who purchased for $325 an acre five years ago, sold recently for $1000 an acre. A Contra Costa County vineyard was purchased for $95,000, including crop, and the buyer sold the crop for $35,000. A San Bernardino County grower, with 1927 acres, sold his Missions for $150 a ton, averaged 8 tons to the acre, and has just purchased an additional 940 acres from the Fontana Land Co., for a consideration of $125,000. Normally San Bernardino is not considered a raisin district, yet a grower a mile south of the producer just mentioned raised 75 tons of raisins on 60 acres, and received for his crop $22,500.

Sonoma Valley has witnessed similar transactions where the first crop sold from the vines almost paid for the vineyard.

Do you think the investor can benefit most by purchasing an established vineyard or planting upon raw land?

Many interesting and conflicting answers were received. About an equal number advocated each method, and others said to flip a coin and take your choice, but consider local conditions. Here are other bits of advice: Beware of old vineyards, poor from neglect; better to buy a producing vineyard than to take a chance on future conditions; plant raw land if experienced or if not experienced get best advice available; one can figure good interest on a vineyard at $500 an acre, but at higher prices it is better to develop raw land; depends upon capital available; no income can be expected until the vineyard comes into bearing; depends upon class of grape grown; established vineyard recommended for wine grapes; or to reap harvest while the sun is shining, but raw land for table grapes; consider everything in purchasing old vineyards, such as appearance and condition of vines, probable infection, irrigation facilities, distance from transportation.

There are several worn out and neglected vineyards in Sonoma Valley which have recently been sold to buyers fully cognizant of conditions but willing to speculate and experiment on the yield.

Some good advice is embodied in some of the answers to Orchard and Farm's queries, for instance, an expert writes: "Consider present prices abnormal and plant only high colored grapes." Meaning principally, Alacante Bouchets, whose princely price is due to their richness of color. They can be mixed with inferior juice and will transform it into very acceptable Zinfandel or Burgundy type wines.

If prohibition continues in its present form, what effect do you think it will have on the market?

This question brought out more conflicting replies than any other, but the general belief seems to be that there would be no change unless it is for the better. One correspondent predicted under these conditions, an increase in the demand for wine grapes and stimulation of planting. Several pointed out that the novelty of home brewing and making of wines will wear off and that as a result the market gradually will settle back to normal. In contrast, a Napa County correspondent expressed the belief that prohibition will not effect the future market one way or the other because better methods of reaching the consumers are about to be launched; he predicted that even though prices dropped somewhat, the market would continue firm.

If prohibition should be more strictly enforced, do you think it would so affect home manufacture of liquors

The majority expressed the opinion that more strict enforcement would depress, if not destroy, the wine grape industry, especially if enforced to the extent of preventing the home manufacture of wine. A few did not seem to feel that more strict enforcement would have any effect, while one opined it might serve to make the market better.

If the manufacture of light wines should again become legalized, what effect do you think it would have on the market?

This brought out a great diversity of opinion with many asserting the effect would be ruinous to the growers, as the industry would return to the old system under which most of the profits went to the wineries. However, others thought the effect would be to stabilize the market, following a decline. Three expressed the belief that for one or two seasons, at least, the consumption would be increased rather than diminished and possibly the market would experience a boom.

Is grape planting being overdone? If so, what branch of the industry will suffer most? If not, how far can we go?

Summarizing all replies, one is impressed by the variation of views of the different representative men and by the great uncertainty with which a number look upon the future. "One man's guess is as good as another's," one said, but reviewing all their replies, the writer is lead to three very definite conclusions: 1—That a tremendous increase in production looms. 2—That if planting is being overdone, it is principally with wine grapes. 3—That we can go as far as our gambling instincts will allow.

The Lieutenant-Governor Aspirants

IT IS nothing short of queer that a state which has the reputation California has, should have two candidates for Lieutenant-Governor of the stripe of C. C. Young and Senator Rominger. As between the two, there is little choice for the broadminded voter of liberal views. If both hung out their political banners, both would sport the little service flag pennant of the "dry." And yet there are men just as entitled to be called thorough Americans, just as concerned about the majesty of the law, just as intelligent, honorable and fitted to hold the political positions sought by these two radicals.

There is some excuse for Senator Rominger's views for he comes from Long Beach, but we are told that Young claims Santa Rosa.

Rominger, author of the once famous Rominger bill, believed by some to have been promulgated in the interest of the vineyardists of California, is entitled to the benefit of the doubt which some felt that he was actually trying to save the vineyard industry. Rominger said he would give his life's blood to "get" wine and beer. Perhaps he was wrongly quoted or that the newspapers should have left the quotation marks off the get. At any rate he can be no more fanatical than Governor Stephen's running mate, Mr. Young.

After all, it is the governorship which concerns California most and the economy program and business record of Stephens' rival, Friend W. Richardson, commends him to all voters regardless of their views on prohibition. A "dry" Governor who spends the people's money "like a drunken sailor," and a puritan politician trailing along with him to sanctify extravagance in an intolerable alliance.

The Selfish Camper

WITH the increase of that species of motorists who carries with him his pots and his pans, his kettles and bacon, his bed and board, whenever he essays a trip of any length, has come an increase in the number of municipal automobile camps throughout the State. And with the joy that these municipal camps have brought there likewise has come a great deal of grief.

In the first place, the fact that a man leaves his ordinary duties and seeks the open country does not necessarily mean that he leaves behind him all the selfishness and carelessness which marked him in his business and social life. Perhaps it may even develop this side of his character, otherwise latent. Consequently we find scores, yes, hundreds of motor campers who accept of the hospitality of the cities through which they travel but forget to "clean up" when they are ready to pull stakes and journey onward.

When you break camp, see that all fires are out. Burn your rubbish. Clean up so that the next fellow who drops in will find the welcome rug in its accustomed place before the door.—Motorland.

PRISON breaks are getting so common that we believe Warden Johnson better stay home and lecture his charges instead of talking before women's clubs and lecturing at churches. Uplift in San Quentin seems to be construed as lifting up the latch and walking out.

Women On Record For California Products

THE club women of California have interested themselves as a federation in the campaign for California products. They point out, when interesting women who might be apathetic from the commercial or economic viewpoint, that the increased demand and consumption of California's products means happier homes, better standards of living, more employment and prosperity for California families. The club women of the state are doing fine practical work along this line and reminding the thoughtless and indifferent shopper how much good can be accomplished by calling for California goods.

Incidentally, they are encouraging California talent in the production of art, which is always distinctive and is even more widely recognized abroad than here at home. For instance, who would have thought that the theme of the "Girl of the Golden West" would have made the artistic appeal it did to Puccini, the great composer, when he sought to write an American opera. That he discriminated wisely is attested by the immense success of this grand opera. Perhaps it was the club women's propaganda in behalf of California that made the production of this masterpiece the triumph of the recent Mary Garden season in San Francisco to the great joy of the box office.

California has the goods. Let every one interested in our golden future give impetus to the move made by California club women to increase the demand for our wares.

THE attempt to override Secretary Hughes' advice as to the size of the Navy force is poor business. We believe that no matter how pronounced the pacific complexion of their constituents, that representatives in Congress are showing wretched judgment in advocating a cut not approved by those who have an intimate knowledge of the nation's needed defense. Economically it may be ever so desirable and theoretically an ideal to be devoutly wished for, but in the face of statistics and arrangements vouched for by Mr. Hughes and other great leaders in the peace pact, the reduction of the Navy below figures they approve is not to be thought of. It may be playing politics well, to now and then throw monkey-wrenches such as this into the administrative machinery, but in this instance these tactics do not meet with the approval of practical, patriotic Americans anywhere, for in seeking to confound the armed policy of those in power the disgruntled objector strikes a dangerous and untimely blow at the bulwarks of American defense.

PETALUMA asks concert artists coming to that city to give the best class of music. The tendency to give county towns ordinary programs because they would not appreciate the classic is all too common. Artists or their managers should not overlook the fact that while their electric incubators are bringing out millions of baby chicks, Petaluma and other rural communities are educating their musical taste via the best records or the radio. Traveling artists must keep pace.

CONSERVATORY AND DANCING ACADEMY TO OPEN

Tonight is the formal opening of Madame Maerilla's conservatory of music and dancing academy in the Masonic building. Many invitations have been extended to Sonoma Valley residents and Madame Maerilla further invites all interested in music, dancing and dramatic art to be her guests this evening. The talented little lady will be assisted by her son, Eugene Free, in the management of her studio. Young Mr. Free is an ex-service man and a clever dancer and entertainer.

A program and dancing will be enjoyed by those who attend the formal opening tonight.

Regular instruction will begin next week and already many have been enrolled in the vocal, instrumental and dancing classes.

The Masonic building, formerly occupied by the Glove Factory, has been artistically fitted up by Madame Maerilla for her studio.

BLOSS KEECHLER RETIRES FROM DAIRY BUSINESS

Bloss F. Keechler, who owns a fine ranch in the western foothills of Sonoma Valley, which he has successfully conducted as a dairy for some years past, has sold his Holsteins and will retire from the dairy business. A buyer from Manteca gets two carloads of Keechler's fine stock and shipment will be made the coming week.

The well known dairyman plans to engage in buying and selling stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Keechler will continue to reside on their ranch, which has been improved with a beautiful modern home and garage. Mr. Keechler expects to make trips throughout the state from time to time in the interest of his new business.

MASONIC HOMES TO BE SHOWN ON SCREEN

The Masonic Homes at Decoto and the Orphans Home at Covina will be shown on the screen at Masonic Hall Tuesday night, April 18. A descriptive talk on the good work being fostered in these homes by the Masonic Order, and a musical program will be given. Members of the Lodge and their families and guests will be given a fine evening.

DEVELOPMENTS OF OIL WELLS NEAR NAPA

In speaking of oil developments at Napa, the Napa Journal says:

The W. B. Griffiths Oil Company, with holdings in the Berryessa valley and five wells cased and three holding high grade oil at the present time, has been financed. Further stock sales will be held up pending a meeting to be conducted in the near future and within 30 days a standard rig will be gnawing away in Berryessa valley.

San Francisco capitalists, among the most prominent in that locality, made this possible recently when agreements were reached for a fund of $50,000 with which to begin operations at once.

The Charles M. Woods Company of San Francisco, one of the largest concerns of its kind on the Pacific coast, has been awarded the contract to deliver and install a standard drilling outfit costing $30,000. This drill will be capable of drilling to any depth and will be fashioned after the model used by the Associated Oil Company in the present activities in the valley.

On Tuesday morning W. B. Griffiths, organizer of the company, was called to San Francisco for a conference. Returning to Napa on Wednesday of last week with those interested in the project he went into the fields and drillers announced as the party arrived that the last well had come in that morning.

Whether additional stock in the company will be disposed of will depend entirely upon future developments.

THE CONVICT HUNT BROUGHT POSSE HERE

Great excitement prevailed here on Monday night when a number of the guards and officers arrived from San Quentin in search of four escaped convicts. The finding of a car near Sears Point, thought to have been abandoned by the prisoners led to a search in this vicinity.

The convicts, however, had gone to Novato during the night, forced a garage man to drive them to Monticello and escaped. The garage man on his return notified the sheriff of Marin county.

Guards located them Thursday in hiding near Knoxville, Lake county. Three of them were captured after a gun battle. A fourth is still at large.

Miss Mildred Russell, university graduate and trained nurse, now employed at Crane's Sanitarium, will be remembered as a former bright student and graduate of the Sonoma high school.

SCHELLVILLE AGENCY MAKES PERFECT RECORD

As every Northwesterner knows, Schellville is an interchange point between the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company and the Southern Pacific Company. During the first two months of 1922, 2448 cars were handled in and out of Schellville without a single error being made in the interchange reports; 1198 cars were handled during January and 1250 during February.

Superintendent McMullin has been carrying on a campaign with southern division agents in an endeavor to have them all show perfect scores in the handling of interchange reports as experience has shown that erroneous reports not only result in additional work but that they create considerable confusion in the company's interchange accounts. In commenting on the record made by the Schellville agency, Superintendent McMullin said: "The efficiency shown by the force at Schellville is a good example for all stationmen, not only in the handling of interchange reports, but in all of their accounting work."

CLUB NOTES

The usual business meeting took place at the Woman's Club house on April 7. The Mission report given by Miss Stofen was most encouraging and a plea was made for a donation to assist with maintenance. $25 was graciously given by the club for this worthy cause.

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club was invited to take part in the District Convention to be held at San Rafael April 27, 28 and 29. One hundred voices will sing in the chorus, composed of club members only. Several of our members will join in this festive occasion when an elegant program will be given at Hotel Rafael. An invitation was also received to attend the Sotoyome Literary Club meeting at Healdsburg which took place on April 11 at Mrs. C. L. Fitch's home.

The club women's endorsement of California made goods was commended by a vote of the members present.

The State Federation requested two delegates from the Sonoma club to the state meeting at Los Angeles.

L. V. EMPARAN,
Club Reporter.

INTERESTING PROGRAM TO BE PRESENTED AT CLUB

Next Friday, the social afternoon at the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club will be in charge of Mrs. Will Clewe who has an excellent program to present. Mrs. Frank Greene of the Petaluma Woman's Club will give a talk on Mrs. Kathleen Norris, famous California novelist.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. George Leiser will entertain the Flying Needles next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Leveroni are driving a handsome new model Oldsmobile.

Mrs. Jaroz of Buena Vista has a little 6 1-2 pound daughter. Dr. W. B. Hays was in attendance.

Mrs. Joseph Vella and little daughter, Carmela, are visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco this week.

Miss Laura Wickham, a student of art and literature at the University of California, has been visiting at the R. A. Poppe home.

J. Neukom, who bought the Schmidt place on Broadway recently is installing electricity and otherwise improving his poultry ranch.

Lloyd Lynch has arrived from Mendocino county to assist at the Sonoma Valley Dairy, of which his brother, E. G. Lynch, is proprietor.

Misses Verna Quartaroli, Sabina Sebastiani and Irma Adler, three of the belles of the younger set, have been spending the Easter vacation in San Francisco and suburbs.

Miss Sganzi, daughter of the well known dairyman, has accepted the position of bookkeeper and cashier at the new branch store of the Mission Creamery in San Francisco.

"Alice in Wonderland" will be shown at the El Verano school house Thursday evening. The school adopted an Armenian orphan and will show the picture to aid the charity work.

Messrs George Angove, Charles Taylor, Roy Pauli, Joseph Vella and Mr. Bancroft were among those who attended the Napa I. O. O. F. meeting this week. One of the grand officers was present.

Word has been received from France of the safe arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Lemoine who sailed last month for a visit with relatives. The Lemoines are former Glen Ellen residents, Mrs. Lemoine being a sister of Mrs. A. Froment.

Col. Theodore Gier, wealthy vinyardist of Napa county, accompanied by a party of friends including Mr. Beeman and his daughter-in-law were recent visitors at the Goldstein vineyards and were hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Blanckenberg.

It was erroneously stated in these columns last week that Joe English was Superintendent at the Hall ranch. O. E. Monroe, brother of one of the owners of the ranch is Superintendent. This fine orchard property is owned jointly by Mrs. Robert Carter and Mrs. E. Gardner.

The many friends of L. S. Simmons the druggist, will be glad to hear that he is convalescent from his recent serious sickness. Mr. Simmons, thoughtful of his patrons, neglected a bad cold during the epidemic and as a result suffered a general breakdown when he was finally compelled to give up.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS TO ENTERTAIN

Sonoma Parlor, N. D. G. W., will give a social dance Monday evening, April 24, to which Native Sons and their families are invited. The affair will be held in I. O. O. F. hall. Good music will be provided and refreshments served.

Director of State Institutions Ralph Fisher was in Eldridge on business last week.

The merry-go-round which the state purchased last year for this institution is being assembled, and will soon be in operation for the entertainment of the inmates.

Since Mr. Wagner, the truck driver, resigned April 1, there have been by actual count six drivers trying to fill the position. Just why this new, pneumatic tired truck does not appeal to the drivers we are unable to learn. At present one of the attendants has been drafted to drive the truck until the Civil Service Commission can send another driver.

Business Manager W. T. Suttentfield spent Sunday on his ranch near Lodi.

The other Sunday one of the employees went out joyriding and returned quite late at night. On the way home he thought his car did not have quite enough power, so he stopped in a neighboring village and hitched a "jackass" and "white mule" to the car. When he got in front of the main building he mistook a pile of building material for his garage and proceeded to park his car on top of the pile. As soon as he discovered his mistake, he was so indignant at himself that he loudly exhausted the profane vocabulary of three languages. The officials have granted him a perpetual leave of absence without pay.

GLEN ELLEN NOTES

Howard Johnson is laid up with the influenza.

Mrs. Bish has been ill the past week with tonsillitis.

The Valley of the Moon District of the county Sunday School had a special meeting at the Congregational church, Sonoma, on Tuesday evening of last week, to elect a new president, as the present one was elected county president at the Healdsburg convention.

Mrs. Cyrus Ennis is spending a few days in San Francisco, and while there attended the opera.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Edrington and Mr. and Mrs. Horn spent the week end at Glen Ellen.

Miss Roberta Poppe is at home from her school in San Francisco for the Easter vacation.

Miss Louise Clark and Miss Ethel McAuliffe, our local school teachers, are in San Francisco this week attending Mrs. McPherson's meetings.

Mrs. Garvan of Eldridge is very ill.

Hayward Johnson is very much better and expects to soon be able to go back to work. Paul Bradley of San Rafael is relieving him.

Miss Enos Bonnevecchio leaves Saturday morning for San Jose to spend Easter.

Mrs. Shirley Weise is improving and is now considered out of danger.

There will be Easter services and an egg hunt at the George Thompson ranch at o'clock tomorrow under the auspices of the Congregational Sunday school.

HOLDS ACT CREATING WOMAN'S HOME VALID

The petition for the release of Betty Carey, the first woman prisoner of the state home for delinquent women in Sonoma, was dismissed by the Third District Court of Appeals in Sacramento last Monday.

Betty Carey was admitted to the state institution by order of a San Francisco court after she had been convicted on a charge of soliciting for prostitution.

The decision of the appellate court holds the act forming the state home constitutional. In reference to the petition which said the sentence was cruel and unusual the court held: It is not a penalty. Indeed it is wholly for the purpose of assistance and reformation. Whether or not the detention is an unwarranted interference with personal liberty it seems clear that it does not institute cruel and unusual punishment.

The claim that the act discriminates against women is answered by the court stating that it is noted that the state has never claimed that it does not discriminate with reference to women though happily it is believed that these discriminations are enacted mainly in their own interest.

There are now twelve inmates at the home.

Mrs. A. R. Grimsted (Emilie Poppe) has returned to her Sacramento home after a visit with her parents here.

BIG ICICLES BLOCKED TRAIN

Serious Delay Caused by Freak Temperature in Tunnel Through the Cascade Mountains.

Huge icicles stopped a transcontinental train in a Cascade mountain tunnel for several hours until the obstructions were cut away. Water dripping from some mysterious source poured through the roof and formed into icicles three feet in diameter, blocking the tracks. The train, moving at a snail pace, was brought to a stop within a few feet of the blockade and delayed for some time while the ice columns were sawed off. During this operation the wheels of the engine froze to the rails and jets of steam had to be used to free them. The temperature in this tunnel has always been a mystery. The interior of most tunnels is usually warmer than the temperature at the portals, but in the single instance hoar frost sometimes forms on the steel rails several inches thick.

NOT WHOLLY A LOSS

She: If you were to lose me, darling, would it break your heart?
He: Yes, dearest, but my bank account would mend.

Hottest Place on Earth.

The Dead sea, at the southern end of the Jordan valley, in Palestine, is said to be the hottest place on earth. It is 47 miles long, ten miles wide, and lies in a depression 1,800 feet below the level of the sea. Hence it has no outlet to the sea and the waters that flow into it are disposed of by the rapid evaporation caused by the heat. Five million tons are thus daily taken up by the atmosphere. There is not a deeper trench than this on earth. As perpetual snow rests on the tops of high mountains because they are out of the blanket of air to some extent, so the Dead sea is always hot because it is under so thick a blanket and also situated well southward. The water of this curious lake is five times as salty as the ocean, and one cannot sink in it. The water is bitter to the taste, oily to the touch, and produces a yellow stain.

Police in Singing School.

If it happened on Broadway or Fifth avenue it would be scandalous, but in the theater of the Seventy-first infantry armory, at Park avenue and Thirty-fourth street, it is all right. A score or more traffic cops, plainclothesmen, patrolmen and sergeants may be heard there several times a week lustily singing the "Marseillaise" and other choral songs. They are members of the New York Police Department Glee club, and among them are many good voices, which, when not directing traffic, ordering burglars to halt, etc., are cultivated under the direction of a well-known instructor. —New York Evening Post.

Toys.

As the Christmas tree dries up and "falls off," study the kiddies with their toys—and learn much philosophy.

What toy appealed most to the boy? Probably it reveals the secret of that interesting mystery, the career he will follow.

Little girls are just as fond of their doll babies as their great-grandmothers were. That explodes all fears that home life is rocking at its foundations. —Chicago Post.

Hobson's Choice.

Mrs. Tomkins—Are you satisfied with your new cook?
Mrs. Stevens—I'm in doubt how to express myself. If I say I'm dissatisfied she'll leave me, and if I admit that she is a treasure the neighbors will steal her. —London Answers.

Canceled the Debt.

Paying $3 C. O. D. charges on a supposed Christmas package delivered by a messenger, a Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) woman opened and found buried in the sawdust inside a note, "Here is a receipt for the $3 you owed me for so long."

VISION

The practical man sees a small wooden box
Strung tight with the gut of a cat.
On which you can scrape with the tail of a horse.
There's nothing more to it than that.
Or so he declares, and it's perfectly true.
That's all that a vision seems.
Unless you have visions which lead you to see
A casket of loveliest dreams.

The practical man knows a tree is a tree.
He figures its height and its girth.
How many board feet it would yield to the saw.
And just what the boards would be
And yet to the man who has vision, it stands,
A miracle sprung from the sod.
A green living glory that ever proclaims
The spirit and purpose of God.

The practical man sees a practical world
And runs it in practical style.
He's safe and he's sane as an everyday guide.
But still, every once in a while,
Though practical people make living run smooth,
Let's yield to the magical thrill
Of dreamers whose beautiful visions supply
The reason for living at all!

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE ON MT. TAMALPAIS

The Mill Valley Congregational church is inviting the other churches of the community to join in a special Easter sunrise service on the top of Mt. Tamalpais, Sunday, April 16th. Special music is being secured and Dr. Charles Sumner Nash, President Emeritus of Pacific School of Religion (undenominational) will deliver the address. A sextette of trumpeteers will lead the music.

The site chosen for the occasion is on the very peak, just east of the observatory where the first light of the morning can be seen. Boulders can be utilized for seating. The platform of the observatory will be reserved for the speakers' stand.

The top of the mountain can be reached by the Mountain railroad, and by walking. The Tamalpais and Muir Woods railroad are placing their entire equipment at the disposal of the public and will run as many trains as needed, leaving Mill Valley at about 3:45 a. m. Returning train service will begin about 6:30 a. m., so that all can get back in time for Easter services in their respective churches. People should consult the schedule notices of the Tamalpais and Muir Woods railroad and make reservations with them. Reservations both coming and going are absolutely necessary as the railroad is single track and quite limited for large numbers. Reservations at the Tavern are especially necessary to be made early.

Those walking will have the added attraction of the wonderful view from the mountain by moonlight as the moon will be full at that time. The Pipe Line trail is the shortest grade up. Members of the Tamalpais Conservation Club will be asked to act as guides.

The sun, heralded by trumpets, rises approximately at 5:20 a. m., and service will begin about 5:00 a. m. and being on the top, the very first glimpse of the sun will be sought. Nothing in natural surroundings can scarcely be quite so inspiring for an Easter service.

The public is invited to attend and enter into the spirit of the occasion. Churches are invited to attend in a body and bring their singers to assist in the music. In event of rain the services will be held in the Tavern.

The Northwestern Pacific will run a special boat from San Francisco at 2:45 a. m., to connect with the leaving mountain train to arrive at the top at 5:00 a. m.

SCHUHMAN RESORT HAD FIRE TUESDAY

The Sonoma fire engine was called out Tuesday to Buena Vista, where a lively blaze from the chimney of the Schuhman resort menaced the tall frame building and caused quite a scare.

An overheated range started the chimney fire which was extinguished with but slight damage.

Francis McDewitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDewitt, is enjoying a vacation at the Summit. Francis may handle the ice cream concession at the big resort this summer.

SONOMA'S PUBLIC LIBRARY SHOWS GOOD GROWTH

The Sonoma Free Public Library which is available to every resident of Sonoma city without any cost and to everyone in the valley at the nominal membership fee of 50c per year is becoming more than ever a factor in the community. At the April meeting of the library trustees a comparison of figures showed that in March, 1921, over 600 books were taken out during the month, while last month of this year over 800 took books from the shelves. In addition to these, requests for books from the state library are daily becoming more pronounced and through the Sonoma Library's affiliation with Sacramento the local librarian, Kate McDonnell, is enabled to get books on any subject for those who do not find what they require on the shelves here. Not only do teachers and students avail themselves of the advantages offered by the Sonoma library, but those interested in science, art and politics are enabled to get the very best authorities and reference books. Just now requests for geological treatises and oil data are common.

The Sonoma Public Library is one of the community's best assets and fortunately, the present city administration appreciate it as such. Mayor Fred Bulotti and the trustees do not look on the library as something that the city has to support but regard it as a valued institution which they are glad to foster.

At the meeting of the library board Tuesday night some new fiction was discussed and ordered purchased and a number of subscriptions to magazines renewed.

The following books have been received from the State Library at Sacramento at the request of patrons of the Sonoma Library:

Text Book of Psychology.
Chapters from Modern Psychology.
American Indians.
Home Vegetable Gardening.
Practical Flower Gardening.
The Spell of Scotland.
Bonnie Scotland and What We Owe Her.

Landscape Gardening.
Oil Findings in California.
Elements of Electricity.
Geikie's Life of Christ.
Rise of Modern Religious Ideas.
Modern Road Construction.
Denmark, a Co-operative Commonwealth.

Birds of California.
Schleimann's History of Troy.
My First Summer in the Sierras—John Muir.

In Classic's Shades—Joaquin Miller
War and Peace—Tolstoi.
Novels and Tales—Stevenson.
Garden Manual.
United States Census Reports.
Two works of fiction in Spanish.

Mrs. Lawrence of the Hyde tract went to San Francisco Monday to remain for a visit among old friends and relatives.

Miss Lolita Clerici, a student at the Ursuline Academy, Santa Rosa, is spending the Easter vacation with her parents here.

IDOL VENERATED IN INDIA

Thousands Take Part in Annual Pilgrimage to the Shrine of the Famous Juggernaut.

The "Car of Juggernaut" is the car which the idol, Juggernaut, or Jagannatha, rides in triumphant procession in India when the festivals of Jagannatha are celebrated. Jagannatha is another name for the Indian god Krishna (supposed to be the eighth incarnation of Vishnu), and it also is the name of the idol in a temple at Puri in Orissa on the Bay of Bengal, a temple dedicated to Krishna, a wooden image with a red body, black face, gilt arms—its crimson mouth wide-open and its eyes sparkling with gems—this idol in its rich robes presents a very striking appearance.

Jagannatha is throned between his sister Subhadra and his brother Balarama, one black and the other white. At the times of the festivals of Jagannatha the idol is placed on a great car bearing 16 wheels, drawn by some of the people who crowd from all parts of India in pilgrimage to this shrine. Sometimes as many as a hundred thousand are there. It was stated that in former days many of the pilgrims threw themselves under the wheels of the "Car of Juggernaut," immolating themselves in the belief that they would thus be transported direct to heaven.

GERMS KILLED BY SUNLIGHT

In That Way Water Is Kept Comparatively Free From Infection That Would Spread Disease.

There are few more wonderful sights in the world than a winding river shining in the sunlight. But our interest in such a scene may be greatly heightened by the reflection that the sunbeams are not merely beautifying the water; they are engaged in a curious work of the utmost importance to man's welfare. Scientific investigation has proved that sunlight possesses a wonderful power to kill injurious germs in river water.

Where a river is polluted by sewage, millions and millions of dangerous bacteria flourish in its water and are carried along with it to spread disease and death around its banks unless their development is arrested. If the sun does not shine upon such a river it may become a peril to whole communities. But if the sunlight does reach it freely, the germs are destroyed and the water is kept comparatively free from infection.

Soothing Sights.

The commuting train was crowded and the Woman felt fortunate at securing a seat. This feeling began to dissipate when she realized that a crying baby was in the seat ahead. His tired mother danced him up and down in a vain endeavor to quiet him. Then she stood him up so that his tiny red face peered over her shoulder at the people behind. His wallings subsided into sniffls as he looked around. He was particularly attracted by a young man sitting next to the Woman, whom he gazed at intently. Encouraged by her baby's silence his mother patted him gently on the back and murmured in soothing but very audible tones:

"There, there! That's a good boy. Now look at all the funny faces."—Chicago Journal.

Lincoln Shrewd Lawyer.

It was in the old Metamora (Ill.) court house that Lincoln won a case for a man who was suing another for fraud in a horse trade. Lincoln's legal opponent had on a new and stylish shirt with a long, pointed collar attached and, contrary to the usual custom, opening in the back. The worthy gentleman was wearing the shirt for the first time and had put it on wrong side foremost with the points of the collar sticking back. Lincoln in his defense had said that his opponent was wise and knew many things, but probably did not know all about a horse trade, as: "Gentlemen of the jury, there are some trifling things he does not know; you will perceive that he doesn't know when he has his shirt on right," and Lincoln won the case.

Whitman's Childishness.

The story of Whitman's romancing to Emerson concerning the rapid sale of his own first edition (possibly sincere, because a subconscious fulfillment of a deep desire) and his later flat contradiction of that romance, and the (as many are disposed to believe) exaggerated story about his six children, to say nothing of the obvious deception in publishing anonymously reviews that he had written of his own poetry, or in republishing, over assumed initials, as an original novel, a story that had been formally issued four years previously—all this can be more easily understood if we allow him to have retained a child's fondness for fabrication.—Emery Holloway, in the Dial.

Editorials First—News Next.

In China, the editorials appear on the front page, as they are considered the most important part of the paper. The rest of the news follows in order of importance—legal and government news, telegraph news, local news, and finally advertisements. The advertisements are not scattered through the paper, but are lumped on the last few pages.

The officials are very careful of what comes out in the newspapers. If an editor wishes to remain in business he must see to it that nothing adverse to the present administration appears.

STATE EXPENSES ABOVE INCOME FOR MARCH

State expenditures exceeded receipts during the past month by nearly $3,000,000 according to the statement of State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson. The receipts were $5,081,025.83, while the expenditures reached the great sum of $7,874,062.15.

Among the larger items of expenditures were:

General fund, salaries, etc.	$1,783,000
Motor vehicle	475,000
Compensating insurance	425,000
High school	1,660,000
Second Highway	74,000
Third highway	688,000
Land settlement	319,000
San Francisco harbor	164,000
School Fund	1,544,000
University	219,000

Commenting upon the statement Richardson said:

Growing state expenditures is some thing that should alarm every good citizen and taxpayer. There is need for retrenchment in most of the state departments. The sophistry of constructive expenditures will not fool anyone. Constructive items so called, may, and in many cases do, cloak extravagances. The highway, school, the harbor and other departments should be run efficiently and economically. Because they are constructive is no warrant for them to be extravagant. The state government needs a cutting out of unnecessary positions and a cleaning out of a few hundred political henchmen who serve the machine rather than the state. 476 state pleasure automobiles may be constructive but they are run at the expense of the state and many of them are being used for political purposes by state politicians seeking only their own interests and the perpetuation of the political machine. Strict economy is needed to relieve the people from the great burden of taxation. This burden falls upon all classes.

IMPROVEMENTS AT FRENCH LAUNDRY

Among the Sonoma business places keeping pace with our up-to-date city is the French Laundry. Mr. and Mrs. Lembeys have made many improvements for the 1922 season, including a modern drying room electrically equipped with a special fan drying process.

The Lembeys are skilled laundry people and turn out beautiful laundry work.

GOLD MEDAL TO BE PRESENTED TOM MILTON

In recognition of Tommy Milton's victories during 1921 in the American automobile racing championship series and his achievements already this season which have put him in the lead for the 1922 championship, the popular driver will be signally honored by the San Francisco Speedway

Association on the occasion of his appearance there on Easter Sunday, April 16th, when he will drive in the Golden Gate Motor Derby at San Carlos.

At that time a gold medal will be publicly presented to Milton, the ceremony taking place between the staging of the Spring Fashion Revue, a preliminary to the big race, and the actual start of the latter.

ATTEND TWO FUNERALS

Ben and Irving Brusky have returned from the sad mission which took them to Stockton and from there to Milton, where the remains of their mother was laid to rest in the presence of many relatives and old friends. Rev. Father Flatley of Stockton blessed the grave. The funeral was held Saturday from the chapel of Pope & Smith, Stockton undertakers.

A sad coincidence was that at the same mortuary the remains of John J. Brusky, uncle of the Brusky brothers were awaiting burial. Mr. Brusky having passed away on April 6th at his home in Stockton. On the day following the funeral of their mother, Irving and Ben Brusky attended the last sad rites for their uncle.

Among the relatives who attended the funeral of Mrs. Brusky beside her sons, were her sister, Mrs. John Nourse of Eugene, her brothers John William and George Stanaway of Milton and her brother George Stanaway of Stockton.

VINEBURG NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fink of Oakland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Martin several days this week and during their visit motored through the Valley of the Moon and on Thursday visited Santa Rosa.

The many friends of Dr. Hennessey will be glad to hear that he has left the sanitarium and is now at the Palace Hotel in Napa and is improving nicely.

James B. Small of Vineburg was the guest of Judge Lester Small in Sonoma on Monday.

John Batto returned home Wednesday after a pleasant visit with friends and relatives in the metropolis.

The directors of the Sonoma Valley Apple Growers Association met on Monday evening and formed plans for the coming season and intend to make many improvements to their packing house at this place.

MRS. LOUISE McELROY ENTERTAINS AT LODGE

Mrs. Louise McElroy, who is shortly to depart for Europe, entertained members of the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows and a few friends following the lodge meeting Thursday night.

Mrs. McElroy was a gracious and hospitable hostess, providing a delicious chicken supper for her guests, after which there was dancing and entertainment. The supper was served in the banquet room of the Odd Fellows hall and the tables were exquisitely decorated with the most beautiful spring flowers. The menu consisted of creamed chicken in patie shells, olives, saltines, three colored ice cream and home made cake.

The birthday of one of the members present, Mrs. Grover Rubke, was remembered by Mrs. McElroy with a large birthday cake aglow with pink candles and encircled with dainty pink blossoms. The cake was cut and enjoyed by all present.

At the conclusion of the festivities the hostess of the evening was besieged with good wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe return to the many old friends in Sonoma Valley who will greatly miss Mrs. McElroy while she is abroad.

WIN PROTECTIVE TARIFF FOR EGGS

Poultrymen here will be pleased to learn that the new tariff bill, reported to the Senate carries approximately the tariff rates on eggs advocated by the Poultry Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, and endorsed by Congressman Lea. This is a great victory for the committee and for all the poultrymen of the county.

The tariff bill as it went from the House, carried duties on eggs as follows: Shell eggs, 6c per dozen. Frozen egg meats, 6c per dozen. Dried eggs, 15c per pound.

These rates were considered as too low by the poultrymen of the county and strenuous efforts were made to have the Senate finance committee raise them. The effort was successful, and when the bill was reported to the Senate this afternoon the rates on eggs carried by the bill were: Shell eggs, 8c per dozen. Frozen egg meats 8c per dozen. Dried eggs, 24c per lb.

Of course, the egg tariff battle has not yet been won. There will be a long battle in the Senate over the various schedules, but there is every reason for the belief that the bill, as finally submitted to the Senate, has the backing of the administration and the Farm Bloc, and that it will go through practically as submitted by the Senate finance committee.

Mrs. Susan Whiting has been entertaining Mr. Whiting's niece from Boston at her handsome Page street home in San Francisco. Mrs. Whiting will spend the summer at her bungalow here in Woodleaf Park.
